

CITY OF MORROW COUNCIL WORK SESSION

April 25, 2006

PRESENT AT MEETING:

Jim Millirons, Mayor
C. R. Huie, Mayor Pro Tem
Virlyn Slaton, Councilman
Thomas J. LaPorte, Councilman
Charles O. Sorrow, Councilman

ALSO PRESENT:

John Lampl, City Manager

The topics that were discussed during the Work Session included the following:

1. National Museum of Commercial Aviation (Grant Wainscott).
The City Council discussed advancing the Museum project with the NMCA Board. A portion of City owned property was defined as the location for the museum and a request was considered for the first purchase, transfer, and assembly of a commercial aircraft. Councilman Slaton made a motion to approve the purchase with funds recently received from a City economic development project. Councilman Sorrow seconded the motion. Mayor Millirons entertained discussions and called for the vote. The motion passed unanimously.
2. Tourist Center officially designated as a "Georgia Local Visitor Information Center".
3. Service Delivery (HB 489 expires on April 28, 2006 * Researching and Defining Issues).
4. 2006-07 Budget (Tentative Delivery at May 9th Work Session).
5. CCMA Meeting (GMA Listening Session – April27 @ 7PM – Holiday Inn South).
6. ISO Survey (Update).
7. Longtime Resident (Harold Walters moved to Tennessee).
8. GMA Annual Conference – June 23rd-27th.
9. 6066 Navaho Tr. Property (Final Punch List).
10. Graceland Park (Under Construction).
11. Pathway System (Right of Way - Pending).

12. Pond LCI redesign (Finished- GDOT Reviewing).

13. Property Discussion.

Mayor Millirons discussed the value of park space to the City of Morrow and entertained a motion to acquire park space in the City. A motion was made by Councilman Slaton and seconded by Councilman Sorrow. Mayor Millirons entertained discussions and called for a vote. Councilman Slaton and Councilman Sorrow voted in favor. Councilman Huie and LaPorte agreed in principle, but the 2006-07 budget had not been submitted and therefore did not agree at this time. Mayor Millirons broke the tie and the motion passed.
